WHAT?

A 3-years project (Sept 2019 to Aug 2022) to create new economic prosperity, enhance socio-economic development of the selected areas, promote social inclusion, and boost businesses and job opportunities for the locals.

WHERE?

Italy | Via Selinuntina, areas of Sambuca di Sicilia and Castelvetro-Selinunte (Sicily).

Jordan | Aqaba area (South) and Umm Qais (North).

Lebanon | Jabal Moussa Biosphere Reserve (Mount Lebanon).

Palestine | Masar Ibrahim Al-Khalil from Beit Mirsim to Battir (southern of the West Bank).

HOW?

Using the incommensurable value of environmental, cultural and historical heritage in less-known destinations to turn them into new routes of sustainable tourism.

WHO?

Involving micro/small businesses, local guides, food/handicraft manufacturers, tour operators, public authorities, civil society organizations, local communities to contribute to their socio-economic development.
